Subject: Launch of IAOMP's Quarterly E-Newsletter – “IAOMP Times”

Dear Esteemed Members,

As decided during the Executive Committee meeting held at Kolkata, we are delighted to announce the official launch of the IAOMP quarterly e-newsletter titled “IAOMP Times.”

This initiative has been thoughtfully developed with valuable suggestions from several members and aims to foster academic engagement, enhance inter-institutional visibility, and strengthen the sense of community within our Oral Pathology fraternity.

The e-newsletter will serve as a vibrant platform to share knowledge, celebrate achievements, and keep members informed about important updates, events, and opportunities across the country. An editorial team, with Dr. Prem Karthik as the Editor of *IAOMP Times, will coordinate the invitation, review, and compilation of content. Contributions will be reviewed and selected based on relevance and editorial standards. Please note that selection for publication is purely at the discretion of the IAOMP Times editorial committee.

Call for Contributions

We warmly invite all members, departments, and institutions to actively contribute content under the below headings. This is a wonderful opportunity to showcase your academic work, institutional activities, achievements, and creative ideas.

Proposed Content Structure

Academic Content

Students corner (UG) Crosswords and curated questions from Oral Histology, Tooth Morphology, Oral Pathology, Oral Microbiology, Oral Biology, and Forensic Odontology—designed especially for 1st and 3rd-year BDS students.
