Subject: Invitation to Participate in IAOMP Logo Design Competition

Dear Respected Life Members and Student Members,

Greetings from IAOMP!

As you are aware, our Association has been represented by its existing logo for the past two to three decades. While the existing logo has served as an important symbol of our professional identity, the scope of Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology has expanded considerably over the years, encompassing several advanced diagnostic, clinical, forensic, and research domains.

Recognizing these developments, the Executive Committee (EC) of IAOMP has decided to organize a Logo Design Competition with the objective of developing a new logo that reflects the expanded scope, multidisciplinary nature, and future vision of our specialty.

The proposed logo may incorporate meaningful and creative representations of the following areas:

1. Histopathology and Biopsy Services
2. Forensic Odontology
3. Oral Microbiology –
4. Research and Molecular Sciences –.
5. Clinico-Pathological Correlation

These are suggested areas, and participants are encouraged to develop innovative, creative, and scientifically meaningful designs that represent the comprehensive scope of our specialty.

Logo Design Competition – Participation and Selection

All IAOMP Life Members and Student Members are cordially invited to participate in this competition and contribute their creative ideas towards developing a new identity for our Association.

The submitted designs will be placed before a Selection Committee constituted by the Executive Committee of IAOMP. The entries will be evaluated based on originality, creativity, scientific relevance, clarity, and suitability for representing the Association.

The selected design or design elements will be recognized by the Association, and the member(s) whose contributions are selected will be appropriately appreciated and awarded on a suitable occasion.

Terms and Conditions

1. The submitted logo should be an original creation of the participating member and should not knowingly infringe upon any existing copyright, trademark, or other intellectual property rights of third parties.
2. By submitting a design, participants agree that, if their design or any part of it is selected for adoption, they will execute the necessary written assignment or consent in favour of IAOMP, enabling the Association to use, reproduce, modify, adapt, publish, and register the selected design or its elements as its official logo, in accordance with applicable laws.

3. The selected member(s) will receive due recognition and an award from the Association. The award and recognition will constitute the agreed consideration for the contribution, and no additional royalty, licensing fee, monetary compensation, or other financial benefit shall be claimed from IAOMP for the subsequent use of the assigned design or selected elements.
4. In the event that two or more designs, or specific elements of different submitted designs, are found suitable, the Executive Committee shall have the discretion to select, combine, modify, adapt, rearrange, or incorporate appropriate elements from different entries to develop the final logo. This may include replacing or integrating individual symbols or components of one design with those from another, wherever considered appropriate in the best interests of the Association. The concerned contributors will be duly informed, and their contributions will be appropriately acknowledged.
5. The final design, including any modifications or combination of elements, shall be adopted for the Association's official use through the appropriate approval at forthcoming AGM at Vijayawada. The necessary intellectual property rights in the selected and modified design shall be vested in IAOMP through the required written assignments and documentation, subject to applicable law.
6. The Association shall have the right to use the adopted logo across its official documents, publications, website, correspondence, academic programmes, events, and other organizational activities.
